

Programme Outcomes (POs) for Under Graduate Architecture Degree Programme

Programme Outcomes (POs): Program outcomes describe what students are expected to know and would be able to do by the time of graduation. These relate to the skills, knowledge, and behaviors that students acquire as they progress through the program.

Undergraduate Bachelor of Architecture Degree programme
PO1	Graduate will apply knowledge and skills of arts and sciences to the various architectural scenarios.
PO2	Graduate will Design and develop projects based on function, form and analysis
PO3	Graduate will Design and improve integrated systems of people, materials, information, facilities, and technology.
PO4	Graduate will function as a member of a multi-disciplinary team.
PO5	Graduate will Identify, formulate and solve industrial requirements and problems.
PO6	Graduate will Understand and respect professional and ethical responsibility.
PO7	Graduate will communicate effectively both orally and in writing.
PO8	Graduate will understand the impact of design solutions in a global and societal context.
PO9	Graduate will recognize the need for and an ability to engage in life-long learning.
PO10	Graduate will have knowledge of contemporary issues in industrial and service sectors.
PO11	Graduate will Use updated techniques, skills and tools of architecture throughout their professional careers.